

The Saeima has adopted
and the President has proclaimed the following Law:

Law On Political Parties

Chapter I. General Provisions

Section 1. Purpose of the Law

The purpose of this Law is to ensure the legal basis for the activities of political parties (hereinafter – party) and the alliances thereof, to promote the internal democracy of parties and the alliances thereof and the strengthening of a democratic and civic society.

Section 2. Concept of Parties and Party Alliances

(1) A party is an organisation that is established in order to perform political activities, to participate in election campaigns, to nominate candidates for deputy positions, to participate in the work of the Saeima, local government councils (parish councils) or the European Parliament, to implement the party programme with the intermediation of deputies, as well as to be involved in the establishment of public administrative bodies.

(2) In order to mutually co-ordinate activities and achieve the objectives specified in the articles of association, several parties, according to the procedures specified by this Law, may establish a party alliance on the basis of an aggregate of objectives. A party may concurrently only be in one registered party alliance. The provisions of this Law regarding parties shall be applicable to party alliances, insofar as it does not determine otherwise.

Section 3. Legal Status of a Party

A party shall acquire the status of a legal person with its entering into the Register of Political Parties (hereinafter – Party Register).

Section 4. Delimitation of a Party's Liability

(1) A party shall be liable to the extent of all the property of the party.

(2) A party shall not be responsible for the liabilities of a member. A member shall not be responsible for the liabilities of a party.

(3) If the Law does not specify otherwise, a party alliance shall not be responsible for the liabilities of the forming parties thereof and the forming parties of a party alliance shall not be responsible for the liabilities of the party alliance.

Section 5. Legal Address of a Party

- (1) The legal address of a party is the address indicated in the Party Register.
- (2) If documents, information or other correspondence is sent to a party to the legal address indicated in the Party Register, it shall be considered that the party has received these documents, information or other correspondence within seven days from sending thereof, if the sender can prove that he or she has sent the relevant correspondence.

Section 6. Name and Logo of a Party

- (1) The name, abbreviated name or logo of a party shall be unequivocally different from the name, abbreviated name or logo of a party or party alliance previously registered in Latvia (regardless of continued activities), as well as the name of an association or foundation. Use of the name, abbreviated name or logo of a previously registered party shall be allowed in cases when parties upon reorganisation are united or reformed as an association. The name of a party shall be created according to the requirements of the official language.
- (2) The name, abbreviated name or logo of a party alliance may include the name, abbreviated name or logo of the forming parties thereof.
- (3) If, upon reorganisation, all the parties within a party alliance unite and establish one party, it may take over the name, abbreviated name and logo of the relevant party alliance or use one or several of the referred to elements.
- (4) Names, abbreviated names and logos of parties are prohibited, which:
 - 1) are in conflict with regulatory enactments and good morals. The name shall not contain the name of a military body or the name of such organisations or groups that have been recognised as criminal or anti-constitutional, it shall not create a positive attitude towards violence; and
 - 2) coincide with the name, abbreviated name or logo of such organisation whose aim or activities are aimed against the independence, sovereignty or security of Latvia, or that copies the name, abbreviated name or logo of such organisation.
- (5) Only letters of the Latvian alphabet shall be used in the name of a party.
- (6) Misleading information regarding the purpose of activities, type of activities and legal form of the party shall not be included in the name of a party.
- (7) The words “Republic of Latvia”, the names of State and local government institutions, as well as the words “State” or “local government” shall not be included in the name of a party. The logo of a party shall not coincide with the logo of the State, local governments or institutions thereof.
- (8) A party, the rights of which have been infringed through illegal use of the name, abbreviated name or logo thereof, may demand from the infringer that he or she ceases using the relevant name, abbreviated name or logo and reimburses losses (damages) incurred to the party through the illegal use of the name, abbreviated name or logo thereof.

Section 7. Public Activities of a Party

(1) In order to achieve the objective specified in the articles of association, a party has the right to perform public activities that are not in conflict with regulatory enactments.

(2) For this purpose, a party may:

- 1) freely distribute information regarding the activities thereof;
- 2) create publications and other mass media;
- 3) organise meetings, street processions and pickets;
- 4) maintain communication with other national political parties;
- 5) perform measures that are associated with pre-election campaigns; and
- 6) perform other public activities.

(3) Parties are prohibited from performing State administrative functions and tasks.

Section 8. Economic Activities of a Party

(1) In order to achieve the objectives specified in the articles of association, a party is entitled to perform open economic activities on its own behalf, which do not have the nature or purpose of profit making.

(2) The income of a party may be used for achieving the objective specified in the articles of association thereof. Income that is acquired as a result of the activities performed by a party shall not be divided among the members or founders of the party.

(3) A party shall refrain from actions that in an overt or covert manner are aimed against the openness of the financial activities of a party and the financing restrictions of parties specified in regulatory enactments.

Section 9. Prohibition to Form Armed or Militarised Units

Parties are prohibited from arming the members thereof or other persons, organising military training and establishing militarised units.

Section 10. Transparency of Party Activities

(1) Any party member may participate at the institutional meetings of the relevant party, if the articles of association do not specify otherwise.

(2) Journalists of the mass media may be present at meetings of the highest decision-making bodies (meetings of members or meetings of representatives) of a party.

(3) Party members and journalists of the mass media may familiarise themselves with the decisions taken by the party, the bodies and officials thereof.

Section 11. Party Financing

A special law shall regulate the financing rules of parties.

Chapter II. Founding of Parties and Party Alliances

Section 12. Founders

- (1) Party founders may be citizens of Latvia who have reached age of 18 years.
- (2) The number of founders shall not be less than 200.
- (3) A party alliance may be founded by two or more parties registered according to the procedures prescribed by law. The party alliance is prohibited from founding another party alliance.

Section 13. Decision Regarding Founding of a Party

- (1) In order to found a party, persons who join in a party shall take a decision at the meeting of founders regarding the founding of the party, shall approve the programme and articles of association of the party, elect an executive board and an audit institution for economic and financial activities.
- (2) The decision regarding the founding of a party shall include the following information:
 - 1) the name of the party;
 - 2) the purpose of the party activities;
 - 3) the rights and duties of the founders, if the founders are in agreement thereof;
 - 4) the authorisation of all the founders for at least two of the founders to sign the articles of association and the application to the Party Register authority; and
 - 5) other information that the founders deem necessary.
- (3) In the decision regarding the founding of a party alliance, the information referred to in Paragraph two, Clauses 1, 2, 3 and 5 of this Section shall be indicated.
- (4) The decision of the meeting of founders regarding the founding of a party shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting of founders, in which the number of founders who are present at the meeting of founders and take the decision regarding the founding of the party, and other decisions taken at the meeting of founders thereof shall be indicated. The minutes of the meeting of founders shall be signed by the Chairperson of the meeting of founders and the recorder of minutes thereof.

Section 14. Articles of Association of a Party

- (1) The articles of association of a party shall be prepared in written form.
- (2) The articles of association of a party shall indicate the following:

- 1) the name of the party and the abbreviation thereof;
- 2) the logo of the party (a description or image thereof), if any;
- 3) the purpose of the activities of the party, the tasks and methods thereof;
- 4) the term of activities of the party, if the party has been established on a temporary basis;
- 5) the preconditions and procedures for joining or withdrawal of membership and exclusion of members;
- 6) the procedures for paying the membership fees and joining fees;
- 7) the rights and duties of members;
- 8) the procedures by which territorial and other divisions of the party may be created, as well as the rights and duties thereof;
- 9) the procedures for the convening of a meeting of members, taking of decisions and representation thereof;
- 10) the term of activities of the executive board and the quantitative structure of the executive board, determining the rights of executive board members to represent the party individually or collectively, the rights and duties of the Chairperson of the Executive Board;
- 11) the structure, procedures for election, competence, procedures for taking of decisions and terms of office of an audit institution for economic and financial activities, as well as the procedures for the appointing and terms of office of a sworn auditor.
- 12) the procedures by which amendments are made to the articles of association and the programme of a party thereof;
- 13) the disciplinary measures applicable to members (if such are provided for), the preconditions and procedures for application thereof;
- 14) the procedures by which deputy candidates for the elections to the Saeima, local government councils (parish councils) and the European Parliament are nominated and approved; and
- 15) the date of approval of the articles of association.

(3) The articles of association of a party alliance shall indicate the following:

- 1) the information referred to in Paragraph two, Clauses 1, 2, 3, 4, 10, 11, 12, 14 and 15 of this Section;
- 2) the parties forming the alliance and the reciprocal rights and duties thereof; and
- 3) the procedures by which parties join a party alliance and withdraw thereof, the preconditions for the joining and withdrawal thereof.

(4) The articles of association of a party may provide for other provisions that are not in conflict with the law. If provisions of the articles of association are in conflict with the law, the provisions of the law shall be applicable.

(5) The articles of association of a party shall be signed by at least two of the authorised representatives from among the founders. The articles of association of a party alliance shall be signed by at least one authorised representative of the founder parties within the alliance. A document that approves the authorisation of the relevant persons shall be submitted to the Party Register authority.

Chapter III. Party Registration

Section 15. Party Register

(1) Information regarding parties shall be entered into the Party Register.

(2) The Party Register shall be established and maintained by the Party Register authority.

Section 16. Application Regarding the Entering of a Party into the Register

(1) Within three months after taking of a decision regarding the founding of a party (party alliance) the authorised representatives of the founders of the party (the parties forming the party alliance) shall submit an application to the Party Register authority. The information specified in Section 18, Paragraph one, Clauses 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 of this Law shall be indicated in the application. The information specified in Section 18, Paragraph one, Clause 4 of this Law shall not be indicated in the application for entering of a party alliance into the Party Register.

(2) The following shall be attached to an application for entering of a party into the Party Register:

- 1) the decision regarding the founding of the party;
- 2) the programme of the party;
- 3) a list of not less than 200 party founders, in which the name of the party is indicated and the signature of each founder certified notarially according to the procedures prescribed by law is indicated next to the given name, surname and personal identity number of the relevant founder;
- 4) the articles of association of the party;
- 5) a list of the members of the executive board of the party; and
- 6) a document that confirms payment of the State fee and payment for publication in the newspaper Latvijas Vēstnesis.

(3) The following shall be attached to an application for entering of a party alliance into the Party Register:

- 1) the documents referred to in Paragraph two, Clauses 2, 4, 5 and 6 of this Section;

2) the decision of the meeting of members of each party forming the party alliance regarding the participation of the party in the founding of the party alliance; and

3) the decision of the party meeting regarding the founding of the party alliance.

(4) The application shall be signed by at least two of the authorised representatives from among the founders. At least one authorised representative from each founder party within the party alliance shall sign the application for entering of the party alliance into the Party Register. A document that approves the authorisation of the relevant persons shall be submitted to the Party Register authority.

Section 17. Transparency of the Party Register

(1) Everyone has the right to familiarise themselves with the entries in the Party Register and the documents submitted to the Party Register authority.

(2) Everyone has the right to receive a statement from the Party Register, as well as an extract or copy of the document present in the Party Register file (including information submitted regarding party founders), upon submission of an appropriate request in writing and upon payment of the State fee. Upon the request of a recipient the accuracy of the extract or copy shall be approved by the signature and stamp of an official of the Party Register authority, indicating the date of issue thereof.

(3) An official of the Party Register authority shall issue a statement upon the request of a recipient that no amendments have been made to the entry of the Party Register, or that a certain entry has not been made in the Party Register.

Section 18. Party Register Information

(1) The following shall be indicated in the Party Register:

1) the name of the party;

2) the legal address of the party;

3) the objectives of the party activities;

4) the territorial divisions of the party, if any;

5) the date on which the decision regarding the founding of the party was taken;

6) the given name, surname and personal identity number of the members of the executive board, indicating whether they have the right to represent the party individually or collectively;

7) the term of duration of the party, if the party has been established on a temporary basis;

8) information regarding the prohibition of public activities or other activities or the suspension, termination or continuation of activities of the party, the insolvency, liquidation or reorganisation of the party;

9) information regarding the appointment of a liquidator, indicating his or her given name, surname and personal identity number;

10) information regarding the appointment of an administrator in an insolvency case, indicating the given name, surname and personal identity number of the administrator;

11) date of the making of the entry; and

12) other information, if provided for by law.

(2) The information indicated in Paragraph one, Clauses 1, 3, 5, 6, 7, 9 and 10 of this Section, except the personal identity number, and changes therein regarding party resources shall be published in the newspaper Latvijas Vēstnesis. The procedures for publication, the amount of payment and the procedures for collection thereof shall be determined by the Cabinet.

Section 19. Documents to be Submitted to the Party Register Authority and Storage Thereof

(1) The documents justifying the making of an entry in the Party Register and any amendments thereto, as well as other documents specified by law shall be submitted to the Party Register authority. The original of the relevant document, a notarially certified copy or a copy thereof, shall be submitted to the Party Register authority, presenting the original of the document. Public documents issued in foreign states shall be validated according to the procedures provided for in international agreements binding to Latvia and they shall be accompanied by a notarially certified translation into Latvian..

(2) Upon notification of amendments to the articles of association to the Party Register authority, an extract of the minutes of the meeting of members shall be attached with the decision regarding the amendments to the articles of association and the complete text of the articles of association in the new wording.

(3) By 1 March of the current calendar year parties, except party alliances, shall submit information to the Party Register authority regarding the number of party members and the citizenship thereof.

(4) The documents specified in Paragraph one of this Section shall be stored in the relevant party registration file.

Section 20. Making of Entries in the Party Register

(1) An entry in the Party Register shall be made based on the application of the relevant party or court adjudication. The sample form of the application shall be approved by the Cabinet.

(2) A decision regarding the making of an entry in the Party Register, the refusal to make an entry or the postponing of the making of an entry shall be taken by an official of the Party Register authority within seven working days after receipt of an application. Within the same period of time, the official of the Party Register authority shall take a decision regarding the making of an entry in the Party Register, based on the court adjudication.

(3) An official of the Party Register authority shall take a decision regarding the postponing of the making of an entry if:

- 1) all of the documents specified in the law have not been submitted;
- 2) the documents, on the basis of which entries are made in the Party Register or which are registered (are attached to the file), do not have legal effect or do not comply with other requirements for drawing up documents specified by regulatory enactments;
- 3) the amount and content of information and provisions do not comply with regulatory documents and other documents present in the registration file;
- 4) upon inspection of that specified in Section 6 of this Law, it is discovered that the name of the party, the abbreviated name or logo thereof does not unequivocally differ from the name, abbreviated name or logo of a party or party alliance previously registered in Latvia, or it concurs with the name of an association or foundation, or is misleading regarding its association with State or local government institutions; or
- 5) another judicial obstacle is registered in the Party Register.

(4) An official of the Party Register authority shall take a decision regarding the refusal of the making of an entry in the Party Register if:

- 1) the objective specified in the articles of association of the party is in conflict with the Constitution of the Republic of Latvia, laws or international agreements binding to Latvia;
- 2) the procedures for founding a party specified in the law have been infringed; or
- 3) after taking of a decision regarding the postponing of the making of an entry, the deficiencies indicated in this decision have not been eliminated within the term specified.

(5) A decision regarding the refusal to make an entry in the Party Register or the postponing of the making of an entry thereof shall be substantiated. A reasonable period of time for the elimination of deficiencies shall be indicated in the decision regarding the postponing of the making of an entry.

(6) An official of the Party Register authority shall send the decision specified in Paragraph two of this Section to the applicant within five working days after taking of the decision.

(7) The applicant has the right to dispute and appeal the decision by an official of the Party Register authority according to the procedures of the regulatory enactments regulating administrative procedure.

(8) An entry in the Party Register shall be made on the same day when the decision is taken regarding the making of an entry.

Section 21. Registration Certificate

(1) After entering of a party in the Party Register, a party registration certificate shall be issued thereto, which shall be signed and stamped by an official of the Party Register authority.

(2) The following information shall be indicated in the registration certificate of a party:

- 1) the name;
- 2) the type of organisation (party or party alliance);
- 3) the registration number;
- 4) the place of registration; and
- 5) the date of registration.

Section 22. Exclusion of a Party from the Party Register

A party shall be excluded from the Party Register, on the basis of:

- 1) an application regarding the liquidation of the party;
- 2) an application by the administrator of the insolvent party;
- 3) an application regarding the reorganisation of the party;
- 4) a court adjudication.

Section 23. State Fee

(1) The amount and the procedures for payment of the State fee to be paid for the making of an entry in the Party Register shall be determined by the Cabinet.

(2) The State fee for the issuance of an extract from the Party Register and an extract or copy of a document in the registration file, as well as for the issuance of a statement shall be payable in the amount and according to the procedures specified by the regulatory enactments regulating the activities of the Party Register authority.

(3) The State fee for the making of an entry in the Party Register, for the issuance of an extract or copy of documents in the registration file, as well as for the issuance of a statement shall not exceed the administrative expenditure that are related to the taking of a decision regarding registration and the making of the respective entry, as well as the expenditure associated with the searching, processing and reproduction of documents or information.

Section 24. Time Limit for the Submission of Information

Information, on the basis of which new entries are made in the Party Register, as well as the documents specified in this Law, shall be submitted to the Party Register authority within 14 days after taking of the respective decision, unless otherwise provided for in this Law.

Section 25. Liability regarding the Provision of False Information

The respective persons shall be held liable, in accordance with the law, for the provision of false information to the Party Register authority.

Chapter IV. Party Members

Section 26. Party Members

(1) Persons who have reached the age of 18 years, who are citizens of Latvia, non-citizens of Latvia and citizens of the European Union, who are not citizens of Latvia but are residing in the Republic of Latvia, may be party members. A person may at any one time only be a member of one party.

(2) Persons who have reached the age of 16 years may be party member candidates.

(3) Only parties in which there are not less than 200 citizens of Latvia may operate in Latvia. In a party with more than 400 members, not less than half of all the members shall be citizens of Latvia.

(4) Members of a party alliance shall be members of the parties forming the alliance.

Section 27. Register of Party Members

(1) Parties (except party alliances) shall maintain a register of party members, in which they enter the given name, surname, personal identity number, citizenship and the address of the declared place of residence of party members.

(2) The initial entries in a register of party members shall be made not later than within seven days from the date of party registration.

(3) Subsequent entries in the register of party members shall be made not later than within seven days after receipt by the executive board of information regarding changes to the information specified in Paragraph one of this Section.

(4) An entry in the register of party members shall be made by a person authorised by the executive board of a party.

(5) Party members, as well as a sworn auditor and the institutions specified by law are entitled to familiarise themselves with the register of party members.

(6) The given name and surname of party members shall be generally accessible information, and anyone may become familiarised with it.

Section 28. Membership of a Member in a Party

(1) The executive board of a party shall take a decision regarding the admission of a member into the party if a different procedure is not provided for in the articles of association.

(2) If the executive board of a party or other body, except for the meeting of members, within the competence of which is the admission of members, takes a decision regarding the refusal to admit a member, the person wishing to become a member has the right to demand a review of the matter in accordance with the procedures prescribed in the articles of association.

(3) Liabilities for members shall be stipulated only in accordance with the procedures provided for in the articles of association.

(4) Membership of a member in a party shall not be transferable to a third person or inheritable. Membership of a member in a party shall terminate with the withdrawal or exclusion from a party, as well as upon the death of the member.

(5) If membership of a member in a party expires, the membership fee and joining fee paid and provided for in the articles of association shall not be reimbursed thereto. A member whose membership of the party has expired, does not have the right to party property. The party does not have the right to collect the non-paid membership fee and joining fee from a member.

Section 29. Rights and Obligations of Party Members

(1) Party members have the following rights:

- 1) to participate in the taking of party decisions according to the procedures specified in the articles of association;
- 2) to elect the executive board of the party and other bodies thereof;
- 3) to run for candidate at the elections for party officials according to the procedures specified by the articles of association;
- 4) to receive information regarding the activities of the party, as well as to freely express his or her opinion;
- 5) to dispute decisions taken by the party according to the procedures specified in the articles of association;
- 6) to withdraw from the party; and
- 7) to decide regarding party candidates for election to local government, the Saeima and the European Parliament, according to the procedures specified by the articles of association.

(2) Party members have the following obligations:

- 1) to observe the articles of association of the party;
- 2) to participate in the work of the party; and
- 3) to pay the membership fee, if such is specified.

(3) Other rights and obligations of members may be provided for in the articles of association of the party, which are not in conflict with this Law.

(4) Members of party alliances (Section 26, Paragraph four) have all the rights and obligations specified in Paragraph one, Clauses 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5, as well as Paragraph two, Clauses 1 and 2 of this Section.

Section 30. Termination of the Membership of a Member

(1) Matters that are associated with the termination of the membership of a member in a party, shall be determined by the Associations and Foundations Law, if this Law does not prescribe a different procedure.

(2) A member has the right to request that a decision regarding the termination of the membership of the member in a party be reviewed at the meeting of members, unless different procedure is specified in the articles of association.

Section 31. Persons that May Participate in the Work of a Party

Persons who are not members of the relevant party may also participate in the work of the party: candidate members, honorary members, associate members, senior members and other persons with a special status whose rights and obligations are determined by the articles of association of the relevant party.

Chapter V. Organisational Structure of a Party

Section 32. Administrative Bodies of a Party

(1) The administrative bodies of a party shall be the meeting of members (general meeting) and the executive board.

(2) The articles of association may provide that the duties of the meeting of members are fulfilled by the meeting of representatives elected from the total number of members (congress, conference) in the amount specified in the articles of association. The representation norm, procedures for the nomination and election of representatives shall be determined by the executive board, unless otherwise specified in the articles of association. All party members have the right to participate in the election of representatives. The provisions of this Law relating to the meetings of members shall be applicable to the meetings of representatives, unless otherwise specified in this Law.

(3) Other administrative bodies may be provided for in the articles of association, determining the procedures for the establishment and the competence thereof.

Section 33. Meetings of Party Members

(1) A meeting of party members shall be the highest decision-making body of the party.

(2) A meeting of party members shall be convened not less than once per calendar year.

(3) Only the following shall be included within the competence of the meeting of party members:

1) the making of amendments to the articles of association and the party programme;

2) the election and recall of members of the executive board, audit institution and other bodies, unless other procedures are specified in the articles of association;

3) the taking of decisions regarding the termination, continuation or reorganisation of the activities of the party, unless otherwise specified in this Law;

4) the approval of the pre-election programme for elections to the Saeima and the European Parliament, unless a different procedure is specified in the articles of association;

5) the taking of a decision regarding the participation of the party in the founding of a party alliance. Upon taking of the decision regarding the participation in the founding of a party alliance, the meeting of members shall authorise one or more representatives on behalf of the party to perform the activities referred to in Sections 13, 14 and 16 of this Law for the founding of a party alliance and the entering into the Party Register thereof; and

6) other matters that, in accordance with the law or articles of association, are within the competence of the meeting of members.

(4) The meeting of members of a party has the right to take such decisions that are within the competence of the executive board and other bodies provided for in the articles of association.

(5) The Associations and Foundations Law shall be applied to matters that are associated with the convening of the meeting of party members, the proceedings thereof, the taking of decisions and declaring decisions null and void.

Section 34. Executive Board of a Party

(1) The executive board shall be the executive body of a party that manages and represents the party.

(2) The executive board shall consist of at least three members of the executive board.

(3) The meeting of members shall elect the Chairperson of the executive board and the other members of the executive board. Members of the executive board shall be elected by secret ballot, unless different procedures are specified in the articles of association.

(4) A member of the executive board shall be elected into office for a period of time not longer than two years.

(5) A member of the executive board shall not simultaneously be a member of the audit institution for economic and financial activities of a party.

(6) Only a natural person with the capacity to act may be a member of the executive board.

(7) The Associations and Foundations Law shall be applied to matters that are associated with the competence of the executive board, rights of representation, the taking of decisions and remuneration and the covering of expenses.

Section 35. Liability of the Members of the Executive Board of a Party and Other Bodies

(1) The executive board of a party shall be responsible for the activities of the party in accordance with the requirements of laws and other regulatory enactments, as well as for the fulfilment of the tasks of the party in accordance with the law, unless otherwise specified in the law.

(2) Members of the executive board and other bodies shall be jointly liable for any losses caused to a party due to the fault thereof.

(3) A party may bring an action against a member of the executive board or other body within five years from the day of the infringement of rights or from the day when the violation of rights became known.

Section 36. Divisions of a Party

(1) Parties (except party alliances) may have their own territorial or other organisationally independent divisions. Divisions of a party are not legal persons.

(2) A party shall create its territorial divisions so that members of the party could participate in the work of the party as close as possible to their place of residence. Each member of the party shall operate in one territorial division of the party.

(3) The territorial divisions of a party may unite in regional departments, the procedures for creation and the competence of which shall be determined by the articles of association of the party.

Section 37. Audit of Economic and Financial Activities of a Party

Economic and financial activities of a party shall be inspected not less than once per year by a sworn auditor. The opinion of the sworn auditor regarding the financial and economic activities of the relevant party shall be attached to the annual declaration of financial activities, which the party in accordance with the regulatory enactments regulating the party financing shall submit to the Corruption Prevention and Combating Bureau.

Chapter VI. Supervision, Suspension, Termination, Liquidation and Reorganisation of a Party

Section 38. Supervision and Control of Party Activities

(1) The activities of a party shall be supervised and controlled by the Corruption Prevention and Combating Bureau, the State Revenue Service, the Party Register authority, as well as other authorities specified in the law.

(2) If the authorities referred to in Paragraph one of this Section determine that the party does not observe regulatory enactments or the activities of the party do not comply with the articles of association, they shall warn the party in writing and instruct the elimination of unlawful activities thereof.

(3) The time period specified for the elimination of violations shall be not less than 15 days and not more than six months.

Section 39. Suspension of Party Activities

(1) The court may suspend the activities of a party for up to six months, if the party:

- 1) upon receipt of a written warning has not eliminated the violations within the time limit specified in the warning;
- 2) within one calendar year has not convened the highest decision-making body – the meeting of members;
- 3) within six months after reduction of the number of members to 150 members has not renewed the number of members to the minimum number of members prescribed by the law; or
- 4) has not transferred the unlawfully acquired financial resources to the State budget within the time period specified in the regulatory enactments regulating the financial activities of the party.

(2) An application to court may be submitted by the authorities referred to in Section 38, Paragraph one of this Law.

(3) Upon suspension of the activities of a party forming a party alliance, the court shall decide regarding the suspension of activities of the party alliance.

(4) After coming into lawful effect of adjudication, the court shall send it to the Party Register authority. The Party Register authority shall publish information in the newspaper Latvijas Vēstnesis.

Section 40. Consequences of the Suspension of Party Activities

If the court suspends the activities of a party, the party shall suspend public activities within the time period for ceasing activities specified in the adjudication of the court.

Section 41. Reasons for Termination of Party Activities

The activities of a party shall terminate:

- 1) with the decision of the meeting of party members regarding the termination of activities of the party;
- 2) upon commencement of the bankruptcy procedure of the party;
- 3) if the number of party members reduces and is less than 150 members or less than another number specified in the articles of association (Section 44);
